Principal At Helen Baller Returns To Classroom Work

At the May 11 meeting the board of directors of the Camas schools granted the request of Irene Roffler to be relieved of her administrative duties and to be assigned as a classroom teacher. Miss Roffler has served the Camas schco's for 34 years. Since 1961 she has been principal of Helen Baller.

The board accepted this request with deep regret and adopted the following statement:

* * *

"On behalf of the children of Camas we would like to thank you for your 34 years of dedicated service to them. Your service and leadership are deeply appreciated. We hope you will enjoy your work in the classroom free from the burden of administrative pressures."

Miss Roffler will return to full time classroom teaching next year at the primary level.

Returning to Classrooms

MISS IRENE ROFFLER, principal of Helen Baller school, requested the Camas school board to relieve her of administrative duties so she can return to classroom work. The request was granted and Miss Roffler will return to full-time classroom teaching at the primary level when school opens this fall. She has served in the Camas schools for 34 years.
